INVESTMENT PROCESS

Fundamental equity analysts, who divide coverage by sector, are responsible for providing in-depth analysis of companies and generating new buy ideas consistent with the strategy's high quality approach, including a rigorous integrated review of financial and Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) factors. The Investment Management Committee, comprised of portfolio managers and analysts, meets periodically to review and approve recommendations to the buy-list recommended by the analysts. A strategy team, headed by the lead Portfolio Manager, rebalances the portfolio on at least a quarterly basis to identify the best subset of names from the buy-list at that particular point of time. The team leverages an optimization process that helps monitor and control portfolio characteristic exposures while overweighting companies based on a proprietary alpha score that includes an analyst rating. In this sense, the strategy is fundamentally driven, but quantitatively assisted.

Trillium's Small / Mid Cap Fund may invest in foreign securities, which are subject to the risks of currency fluctuations, political and economic instability and differences in accounting methods. Investing in foreign securities is riskier than investing in domestic securities. The Fund invests in smaller and medium companies, which involve additional risks such as limited liquidity and greater volatility. Trillium's Small / Mid Cap Fund environmental policy could cause it to make or avoid investments that could result in the portfolio underperforming similar funds that do not have an environmental policy. There are no assurances that the fund will achieve its objective and/or strategy. Diversification does not assure a profit or protect against a loss in a declining market.

The S&P Indices are widely recognized, unmanaged indices of common stock. The S&P 1000 combines the S&P MidCap 400 and the S&P SmallCap 600, to form a benchmark for the small-mid cap universe of the U.S. equity market. Returns reported reflect the net total return index, which reinvests dividends after the deduction of withholding taxes, using a tax rate applicable to non-resident institutional investors who do not benefit from double taxation treaties.

The S&P 400 Index serves as a barometer for the U.S. mid-cap equities sector. The S&P 600 Index covers a broad range of small cap stocks in the United States.

An investment cannot be made directly in an index.

Alpha is measure of performance on a risk-adjusted basis.

The Russell 2500 is a market cap weighted index that includes the smallest 2,500 companies covered in the Russell 3000 universe of United States-based listed equities.

Standard Deviation is measurement of investment risk that indicates the degree to which an individual value in a probability distribution tends to vary from the mean of the distribution. The smaller the standard deviation, the lower the risk.

The Weighted Average Market Capitalization is a stock market index weighted by the market capitalization of each stock in the index.

The Weighted Harmonic Avg fwd P/E is the ratio of the portfolio's total market value to the total earnings of the portfolio.

The Weighted Avg P/B is the weighted average of the price/book ratios of all the stocks in a portfolio.
